What you'll do:

Each year, North Central Co-operative Association Ltd. seeks nominations for our board of directors. Within our organizational structure, directors speak and act on behalf of members. The board has responsibility for the following matters:

- Monitoring performance of North Central Co-op;
- Applying and interpreting complex information presented at meetings in order to render sound and impartial decisions;
- Participating in the planning process, reviewing Co-op goals, strategies and annual budgets;
- Dealing with complex membership matters in a professional and courteous manner;
- Promote impartial and transparent proceedings while maintaining necessary board of directors confidentiality.

Why it matters:

Our team provides a range of products and services to support our member-owners. Through the work that we do, we help to build, fuel, feed and grow Western Canadian communities together.

Who you are:

Qualification to run as a director are found in our bylaws and are highlighted in our nomination application package.

Additionally, the skills and education that a potential board member has that can contribute to the success of North Central Co-op include but are not limited to:

- An understanding and appreciation of Co-op values and the Co-op principles;

Board of Directors Opportunity

- Interest in, and general knowledge of North Central Co-operative Association Ltd. lines of business;
- Experience/education of expertise in accounting, business or financial management;
- The ability to articulate views in discussions along with well-developed communication skills;
- Demonstrated capacity in and commitment to work within a team;
- Computer skills required to organize, interpret, and present information.

Our board directors receive monthly compensation, and we encourage our directors to take advantage of provided learning opportunities, to grow and develop and to foster a culture of teamwork and innovation.

At North Central Co-op, we embrace diversity and inclusion, and we're working to create a workplace that is as diverse as the communities we serve. We support and provide an environment that allows all to bring their whole selves to work.
